PASCAGOULA TOLL ON BRIDGE MUST BE OFF, SAYS GOV. JOHNSON

Asked For as Defense Unit—Must do Something About It, Says Governor—Pay Fee Collection; Says Bridge Has Been Paid For Over and Over Many Times.

Jackson, Miss., July 16.—Describing the Pascagoula toll bridge as "high-jacking," Governor Paul B. Johnson declared today that the state of Mississippi must do something about it.

Asserting that the council of national defense in Washington has appealed to him to intervene in an effort to eliminate the tolls across the bridge, Governor Johnson termed the bridge "one of the worst advertisements the state of Mississippi has today."

The chief executive said that Ralph Budd, transportation commissioner of the council of national defense, has called upon him to do something about the situation because of the big defense program now under way on the Gulf Coast.

Governor Johnson said that in face of the situation "we must do something about it."

He said criticism condemning the toll bridge has reached his office ever since he has been governor, and that he can say conservatively it has poured in from "a very great number of persons." He said he has also received a number of letters from persons living out of the state.

"Some have stated," said the governor "that they never expect to visit Mississippi again until the high-jacking was stopped."

"I would say it is one of the worst advertisements Mississippi has today. It is over this bridge the only way the traveling public coming down the Atlantic coast can reach New Orleans, without going a great distance out of the way."

"Tap Tourists' Pockets," "United States Highway 90 is perhaps the heaviest traveled highway in Mississippi. Every time the tourist comes into our state on this route, Jackson county taps his pocketbook."

The bridge is paid for. In fact it is paid for itself more than once. The traveling public is today helping to pay Jackson county's expenses.

"It is a poor advertisement for our Gulf coast—one of the finest resorts in the country. Based upon accurate information, the coast is losing much on account of this bridge."

INJURED IN TRUCK ACCIDENT

Geo. C. Aubry Seriously Injured Sunday Afternoon; Car Demolished—Others Hurt.

The parked automobile of Mrs. M. Coogan's son, George Coogan, was almost demolished on last Sunday afternoon when a large hauling truck owned and operated by George C. Aubry, 338 Main street, while driving down Hancock street in company with two other men of New Orleans crashed into the car knocking it quite a distance from before the Coogan home and into the rear of the Egloff Grocery Building on Hancock and Sycamore streets. The truck struck a pole and power was temporarily discontinued in this section.

George Aubry, owner and driver of the truck, suffered severe injuries and was thrown clear of the truck onto the paved street. The other occupants of the truck were also thrown from it, Hickey receiving a deep flesh wound on the right arm which bled profusely and the other occupant being badly shaken up. The men were brought to the King's Daughters Hospital for treatment and Aubry was found to have suffered a fractured pelvis bone and was later removed to New Orleans where he was entered in Charity Hospital for treatment.

The impact of the collision was such that the noise made by it could be heard for some distance and sounded like the shifting of box cars on the railroad.

Aubry has resided here for the past few years with his wife and young son at the Main street address, and operating a wood and hauling business.

Interesting Meeting Held Friday Afternoon—Committee Reports Work Progressing.

At a meeting of the Hancock Chapter of the American Red Cross held in the courthouse on Friday afternoon, July 11th, the reports of the different committees revealed work going along steadily with the Production Department having already completed their quota of ten year old girl dresses.

The Logtown branch of the chapter had an excellent representation at the meeting and reported that work had begun on the hospital garments which had been assigned to them for making.

Letters were read from Jackson and Washington relative to the registration of all civilians for defense work which will be taken on July 16th and 19th and which members present offered their services in assisting at the booths on the days signified.

Mrs. L. T. Boyd stated that the Waveland branch had been doing excellent work and Mrs. J. Roland Weston stated that the Junior Red Cross had completed an afghan and were knitting small sweater suits.

Appreciation was expressed to Miss Louise Armstrong for valuable assistance in mimeograph work, and to Mrs. Olive Lyons for the donation of a cedar chest for keeping garments and material in.

It is expected that motion pictures in the interest of Red Cross will be shown in the local theaters about August 10th as part of the publicity program.

A letter was read from Washington asking the Chapter's cooperation in collecting scrap aluminum, so necessary in defense work.

SOLDIER MEN ARE APPRECIATIVE OF FINE RECEPTION RECEIVED

Commanding Lieut.-Colonel Smith Writes of Cordial Treatment of Men.

Recreation headquarters in Bay St. Louis received the following letter a few days ago, following the visit of some nearly one hundred soldiers from Camp Shelby who spent the week-end of July 5-8 here. The soldiers enjoyed their stay and all expressed the hope that they would be able to return on another week-end recreational stay.

Bernard Smith, lieutenant-colonel, 42nd Engineer Regiment, commanding, has written this letter to the ladies and others in charge of the reception and arrangements, as follows:

"To the Citizens of Bay St. Louis: In behalf of the men of the 42nd Engineer Regiment, I enjoy the privilege of extending to you their sincere thanks and appreciation for an unsurpassed weekend as your guests."

"It is most heartening and reassuring to us in the military service who have been trusted with the training of the nation's youth that we can depend upon our civilian neighbors to help maintain the morale and good spirits of our men. The cordial reception tendered the men of the 42nd Engineer Regiment is a clear indication of the support of the national defense effort that we may expect from the people of Bay St. Louis."

The proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof and proof of the results obtained by the Clean Up or Close Up program of the Brewers & Mississippi Distributors Committee is that beer is available to you in INCREASINGLY WHOLESOME surroundings.

This wholesome condition is attested to by city officials and law-enforcement officers. The following are typical expressions received by the Committee:

★ "Beer is now available in this city and county in surroundings that are steadily becoming increasingly WHOLESOME."
—FRANK K. HUGHES
Mayor, Corinth.

★ "It is gratifying to see the ever increasing WHOLESOME conditions that now surround the sale of beer."
—WILLIAM PROBST, Sheriff
Lowndes County, Mississippi

★ "Beer is sold in a WHOLESOME atmosphere in this community."

A Woman's Face Offers Joan Crawford, Melvyn Douglas Powerful Roles

Joan Crawford rises to new dramatic heights in "A Woman's Face," which presents a new and poignant Miss Crawford in a compelling story of a woman's soul. The picture, playing at the A. & C. Theater this Sunday and Monday provides the actress with a terrific role in a terrific drama, in which she runs the gamut of human emotions.

It is the story of a woman, frightfully scarred since childhood, whose face repels all who see her. The psychology born of the disfigured face develops her into the enemy of all mankind. She heads a black-mail ring as a cruel and dangerous criminal figure. Into her life comes a man—the first who does not shrink from her. She comes to love him. Meantime through blackmailing activities, she meets a surgeon who operates on her and restores her natural beauty. The man she loves places her in his uncle's home as a governess to kill the child who stands between him and an inheritance. There, coming to love the baby, she is torn between two terrific emotions until an amazing climax solves her problem.

Miss Crawford as the scarred criminal, and later as the woman whose mother instinct comes through the hard veneer, plays the most difficult and dramatic role of her career as she traces the graduate changes in the nature of the woman.

Melvyn Douglas, as the surgeon who regards her first as a fiend and later as an angel, is excellently cast. George Cukor, who directed "The Philadelphia Story," provides poignant human interest and his deft hand guides the production through difficult situations with artistry.

Here's How Selectees Enjoyed Their Stay Here Last Week-End

Mrs. A. F. Fournier, active in the work of recreation for soldiers in camp, over week-ends, received this letter this week. It is so genuine and breathes a spirit of sincerity, and we publish it for the satisfaction it will be to all concerned in exerting every effort for the recreation of the selectees.

The letter follows:
"Dear Mrs. Fournier:
"You will not remember who I am but nevertheless I am taking this opportunity to thank you and your friends for the wonderful time we all had down in your town."

"It is not everyday that a soldier is given such a wonderful reception in any town that I have been in so far and I doubt if I will find one better in the future."

"So I am thanking you and your committee again and I hope to visit your town again soon."

"I remain,
Yours truly,
EVEL JOHN W. STACEY
43 Eng. Regt. Co. D, Camp Shelby, Miss."

THREE crops in Mississippi—cotton, corn, and hay—accounted for nine-tenths of the land devoted to crops during the past ten years, states the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of State Walker Wood has mailed to all county election commissioners, and Circuit Clerks, Proclamation of Governor Johnson calling an election, and Attorney General Rice's rulings in regard to candidates getting their names on the ticket in each county in the special election for U. Hon. R. O. Arrington of Hazlehurst, former state senator from Copiah county, has assumed his duties as assistant Attorney General, having been appointed to that position by Attorney-General Greer L. Twenty counties have lost W. P. A. projects in South Mississippi. Defense work has priority—June quota out from 28,441 to 20,900, states Andrew G. Smith, Dist. Manager, W. P. A.

Adjutant-General Thomas J. Grayson, State Director of Selective Service, has just announced receipt from Fourth Corps Area headquarters of a call for 1,595 Mississippi trainees—834 white and 761 colored—for induction during August.

The only call larger than this was several months ago and was for 1,600 men. All the new trainees will be inducted at Camp Shelby.

School trustees from all counties in Mississippi convened in Jackson on Thursday, July 10, V. O. Campbell, president of the association presided at the meeting. Addresses were delivered by Governor Johnson, Supt. of Ed. J. S. Vandiver, President of M. S. C. W. Dr. B. L. Parkinson, and others prominent in the school work of the state.

The state building and repair commission recently received bids for remodeling and air-conditioning the governor's office in the new capital, but postponed awards until another meeting, some undetermined future date. Present plans call for enlargement of the office's front reception room, shifting the governor's private office to the large reception room at the south side and rearrangement of other office space to provide two secretarial offices and other changes.

The Mississippi Association of Supervisors will hold its annual session in Jackson on September 11-12. Civilian registration of all citizens 14 and over will take place July 18-19. W. C. The State Oil and Gas Board has just issued permit No. 301 in the line of oil field located in Yazoo City. There are 208 producing wells in this field with a production of one million barrels of oil per month. The south west portion of the field has just had an extension by bringing in the E. C. Johnston-J. O. Martin well. This is stimulating activity in that part of the field. Slick Urshel is beginning a well in Sec. 26-11-3w and should this well produce it will mean an extension of one and one-half miles to the north. British American activity in Shattuck county is still drawing the spotlight by their plugging back to 2300 ft. where another test will be made to bring in a producer. Quite a bit of interest has been stimulated by the Freepress Sulphur Co. drilling on the Tatum dome in Lamar county by the finding of an overhang over the salt plug. The interesting part is that instead of going into salt they went back into sedimentary rock where production can be anticipated. No other salt plug has been found to have this overhang in Mississippi and it will stimulate further drilling around these known salt plugs.

We should not lack bread in this county during the coming winter if the estimates of the crop experts are correct. Latest estimates of Chicago grain experts for the four major grain crops, corn, wheat, rice and oats is 4,587,000,000 bushels, or 43,000,000 more than last year. According to present plans the crop would bring the farmers of the county approximately $1,200,000,000, or 100,000,000 more than last year.

THE FLAME OF NEW ORLEANS SUNDAY AT CAMP SHELBY

Marlene Dietrich Backs Proceeds—Louisiana Used as Background

These are according to advance notices, enough to make a picture in University of the Flame of New Orleans, which opens Sunday and Monday at the Orléans Theater, a stock a dozen ordinary pictures.

It is the first American picture directed by René Clair, internationally famous director of "Under the Roofs of Paris," "The Ghost Goes West" and many others.

For Marlene Dietrich, the star, it is the first time she has walked down a wedding aisle in all her dramatic career. It is also the first time she has done light comedy. Likewise it is the first time she has been given a high-style wardrobe and the first time she ever impersonated a native and sheltered gentlewoman.

"The Flame of New Orleans" is the first major picture in which Louisiana has been used as background for comedy. In such famous pictures as "The Buccaneer" and "Jezebel," New Orleans was background for historical drama.

Miss Hussey, Rising M-G-M Star, Has Just Been Picked by University of Michigan Alumni as Their Ideal Girl

Miss Hussey is a rising M-G-M star, and her role of the past year was "The Philadelphia Story."

After receiving an invitation from the Rev. Joseph Holken, S. V. D., arrangements were made by Major S. E. Misike of the Gulfport Recreation Area and Mr. Boyd Reeves, Assistant District Supervisor of Hattiesburg, to send a convoy of colored troops to St. Rose de Lima School. The convoy was met on Saturday evening at the bridge by our active Chief of Police. As soon as they arrived at the school grounds roll was called and 110 men of the 91st Engineering Battalion answered the call.

Two classrooms of the High School had been prepared as dormitories and the men spread their comforts on the floor. The field kitchen was set up but went several times on strike. When mess call came the boys were certain ready for it. Soon after the supper there was a dance in the school auditorium. A fine selection of dances partners had been provided by the committee. A local band supplied the music. It was a sight to see eyes to see those young men enjoying themselves to the utmost.

This morning many attended services in different churches. After services were over, in order to see the troops, a parade was held. Several truckloads went to Sunny Bank for a dip in the waters of Bay St. Louis. Chicken dinner was served at 2:30. In the mean time the colored population of the Bay had gathered on the school grounds to watch the boys. All kinds of games were played but the biggest attraction was the grand march. To show their appreciation the soldiers staged a drill on Necaise Avenue. There was many a smile when the sergeant barked his command and the laughter when some of the boys missed the command.

When the time came to leave it seemed the soldiers wanted to linger a little longer. Roll was called. The commander of the convoy, 1st Lt. Orel B. Lindsey asked the men if they had a good time. That answer left no doubt in anyone's mind. They all were anxious to come back as soon as possible.

On the way home the convoy stopped at St. Augustine Seminary. The Very Rev. John Gasper, S. V. D., expressed his delight to welcome officers and men to the Seminary. Fr. Leedie, S. V. D., gave a little talk about purpose and history of the Seminary. Under the guidance of the seminarians all the buildings were visited and it was 7 o'clock when the convoy was finally on its way back to Camp Shelby.

Credit for the success of this trip belongs to Fr. Holken who made the men feel at home; Mrs. Margaret L. Hogan who had planned every detail, and last but not least to the leaders of the local colored recreation center: Mrs. Lillian Raboteau and Natalie Plemas.
